

DOMAINE COLOMBO

LA LOUVÉE

Jean-Luc Colombo has forged an international reputation as one of the most visionary and imaginative winemakers in France's Rhone Valley and especially in Cornas.

"La Louvee" (The She-Wolf) is vineyard planted of very old Syrah vines, up to 80 years old, protected by a forest of cedar and live oak trees. The parcel is located in the heart of the Cornas granitic slope and benefits from a south-east facing exposure.

After aging for two years in oak barrels, "La Louvée" evolves as a delicate and elegant wine with aromas of raspberry blueberry, violets, and chocolate, ginger-bread notes ending by distinct minerality. A concentrated wine which will age for up to 20 years or more and that I love to match with a pot roasted pheasant or pigeon.

100% Syrah.
