

VINS JEAN-LUC COLOMBO

Le Rouet Rouge

(Le Rouet a picturesque cove on the Blue Coast)

Hermitage

A classic expression of a grand terroir

Grape variety:

97% Syrah from old vines and 3% Roussanne

Terroir:

From the best terroirs of the Hermitage hill. Granitic soil.

Vinification:

Hand-picked in small bins. After one month maceration under controlled temperature, the wine is matured for 12 months in oak barrels (15% new oak, the rest in 1 to 4 year old barrels) depending on the vintage.

Tasting notes

Color:

Brilliant, profound purple.

Nose:

The nose shows great purity and finesse, with notes of peppery raspberry, candied fruit and fine spices.

Palate:

A well-balanced wine with good structure, integrated tannins, and elegant, long finish.

Service

This great wine will be ready to drink after 2 to 3 years, but can age for 8 to 10 years.

Serve at 18°C/64°F and decant if possible.

Food matches

Perfect with wild hare or Mexican chicken molé (simmered in spices and chocolate).
