Harveys Bristol Cream

Harveys was founded in Bristol, England in 1796. At the time foreign wines including Sherry were transported by ship in oak casks and then blended to sell in the UK. In 1871 the company decided to focus solely on Sherry and in 1882 Harvey's Bristol Cream was created in the company's cellars by John Harvey II and his brother Edward; it was a new, creamier and richer blend than the previous Bristol Milk.

From 1970 onwards Harvey's began investing heavily in the region of Jerez, purchasing top quality vineyards and cellars. Harvey's Bristol Cream is now produced in Jerez, the home of Sherry and has become the number one selling Sherry in the world with presence in more than 70 countries.

WINERMAKER'S NOTES

This wine shows a mahogany color with antique gold notes. On the nose it is delicate, fruity, fresh and aromatic with notes of raisins and hints of caramel. On the palate smooth, creamy and elegant highlighting the fruitiness of the Pedro Ximenez and the complexity of the Oloroso. The Finos and Amontillados give subtle aromas, sharpness and elegance.

SERVING AND PAIRING

Serve chilled. Especially recommended with ice and a twist of orange. Pairs perfectly with fruit salads, ice cream, cheese, cookies and desserts.
